

At St. Peter's Maronite Catholic church, we are committed to welcome strangers, the outcast and to heal the broken ones.

The Gospel calls us to stand in solidarity with those who are suffering, vulnerable, and in need. Jesus consistently sought out the sick, the poor and the marginalized.

"I was a stranger and you welcomed me." Gospel of Mathew.

Our purpose is to inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice. We affirm that St. Peter's Maronite Catholic Church is a parish that celebrates diversity and committed to the justice for all people, regardless of race, culture, ability, economic circumstance, or any other difference that has led to exclusion, marginalization, or oppression within the church or society.

Our programs and activities are aimed to build and guide children and youth, to allow them to develop a deeply steady faithful foundation, and consequently help them stay steadfast even when in the midst of life's adversities.

We are devoted to provide physical, emotional and spiritual care to our elderly.

We will carry out and continue the work of Jesus Christ on Earth.
